

B. Family Information

1. List the people in your parent(s)' household, including:

- yourself and your parent(s) (including stepparent) even if you do not live with your parents, and
- your parents' other children, even if they do not live with your parent(s), if (a) your parents will provide more than half of their financial support from July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021, or (b) the children would be required to provide parental information when applying for Federal Student Aid, and
- other people if they now live with your parents, and your parents provide more than half of their financial support and will continue to provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021.

Additionally, write in the name of the college for any household member(s), excluding your parent(s), who will be attending at least half-time between July 1, 2020 and June 30, 2021, and will be enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program. If you need more space, attach a separate page.

Definition of "Parent": A "parent" is defined as the biological or adoptive parent(s) of the student. If parents are married to each other, both parents' information must be included. If parents are not married, but still live together in the same household, both parents' information must be included. If the students' parents are divorced or separated, use the information for the parent the student lived with more during the past 12 months. If that parent is re-married, the data must also include the stepparents' information. A legal guardian, grandparent, or foster parent is not considered a parent unless they have legally adopted the student.

IMPORTANT DOCUMENT INFORMATION

IRS Tax Return Transcript

If you did not originally use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool when you filed the FAFSA, you may submit a correction at www.fafsa.gov and use the tool instead of submitting an IRS Federal Tax Return Transcript. Some tax filers may not be able to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool. If that applies to you, submit the IRS Tax Return Transcript, or a signed copy of the 2018 tax form 1040.

A Federal IRS Tax Return Transcript can be obtained online or by mail, free of charge, by visiting www.irs.gov (click on “Get My Tax Record”), or by calling 1-800-908-9946. Be sure to request a “Return Transcript” and NOT an “Account Transcript.” Federal financial aid policies do not allow us to accept a copy of your federal tax return or state tax return.

If you filed an amended tax return for 2018, you must provide a copy of your tax transcript, or a signed copy of the tax form 1040 (which will include only information from the original tax return), AND a signed copy of the 2018 IRS form 1040X that was filed with the IRS.

If you were a victim of IRS tax-related identity theft and cannot obtain an IRS Tax Return Transcript, you can instead provide a Tax Return DataBase View (TRDBV) Transcript and a statement signed and dated by the tax filer indicating that he or she was a victim of IRS tax-related identity theft and that the IRS is aware of the tax-related identity theft. You must contact the IRS at 1-800-904-4490 to request a TRDBV Transcript.

IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter

An IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter can be obtained online or by mail, free of charge, by visiting www.irs.gov (click on “Get My Tax Record”), or by calling 1-800-908-9946. To obtain an IRS Verification of Non-filing Letter, individuals must complete the process for requesting a tax transcript as listed above. The Tax Return Transcript must be requested on or after October 1, 2019. The IRS will provide a non-filing letter only if a return was not filed.

A Verification of Non-filing Letter can also be obtained by completing and faxing an IRS Form 4506-T. For Verification of Non-filing Letters, be sure to check box 7, and on line 9, enter the year or period requested (ex.: 12/31/2018).

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

1. A financial aid professional will compare information on this worksheet, and any required supporting documents, with the information submitted on the 2020-2021 FAFSA. Please allow up to 7-10 business days for this review. Please note, expect extended wait times for the verification review process to be complete during our peak processing period (July-September).
2. If additional documentation is requested after reviewing the worksheets and supporting documents, we will request the additional information via the student’s YSU email. It is the responsibility of the student to check their email on a regular basis.
3. Youngstown State University will electronically submit any corrections to the 2020-2021 FAFSA (if required).
4. The Federal Department of Education will reprocess the FAFSA if corrections are submitted and necessary. The student will receive an updated electronic Student Aid Report.
5. If the student’s financial aid eligibility changes for 2020-2021 as a result of corrections, the financial aid awards will be updated on the student’s YSU portal online.
