

Your application was selected for review in a process called “Verification.” In this process, your school will be comparing information from your FAFSA application with copies of your and your spouse’s (if applicable) 2020 federal tax return transcripts, or other financial documents. The law states we have the right to ask you for this information before awarding federal aid. If there are differences between your FAFSA application information and your financial documents, you or your school may need to make corrections electronically, or by using your Student Aid Report (SAR).

1. Submit the completed 2022-2023 Independent Verification Worksheet. Make sure the form is signed by the student and spouse (if applicable).
2. If the number in the household and/or college you are reporting on the Verification Worksheet does not match the number(s) you reported on the FAFSA, submit a written explanation of the discrepancy which must be signed by the student and spouse (if applicable).
3. If requested, submit 2020 Federal Tax Return Transcript(s), or a signed copy of the 2020 tax form 1040, for both student and spouse, if filed. You can obtain a Federal Tax Return Transcript by calling the IRS at 1-800-908-9946 or at www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript.
4. If filed, the following schedules and forms may be requested from your tax return:
 - Schedule 1 (Additional Taxes and Adjustments to Income), Schedule 2 (Additional Taxes), Schedule 3 (Additional Credits and Payments)
 - Schedule C (business income)
 - Schedule E (property rental, royalties, S corps, trusts, etc.)

IMPORTANT DOCUMENT INFORMATION

IRS Tax Return Transcript

If you did not originally use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool when you filed the FAFSA, you may submit a correction at studentaid.gov and use the tool instead of submitting an IRS Federal Tax Return Transcript. Some tax filers may not be able to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool. If that applies to you, submit the IRS Tax Return Transcript, or a signed copy of the 2020 tax form 1040, as well as tax Schedules 1, 2, and/or 3.

A Federal IRS Tax Return Transcript can be obtained online or by mail, free of charge, by visiting www.irs.gov (click on “Get My Tax Record”), or by calling 1-800-908-9946. Be sure to request a “Return Transcript” and NOT an “Account Transcript.” Federal financial aid policies do not allow us to accept a copy of your federal tax return or state tax return.

If you filed an amended tax return for 2020, you must provide a copy of your tax transcript, or a signed copy of the tax form 1040 (which will include only information from the original tax return), AND a signed copy of the 2020 IRS form 1040X that was filed with the IRS.

If you were a victim of IRS tax-related identity theft and cannot obtain an IRS Tax Return Transcript, you can instead provide a Tax Return DataBase View (TRDBV) Transcript and a statement signed and dated by the tax filer indicating that he or she was a victim of IRS tax-related identity theft and that the IRS is aware of the tax-related identity theft. You must contact the IRS at 1-800-908-4490 to request a TRDBV Transcript.

IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter

An IRS Verification of Non-Filing Letter can be obtained online or by mail, free of charge, by visiting www.irs.gov (click on “Get My Tax Record”), or by calling 1-800-908-9946. To obtain an IRS Verification of Non-filing Letter, individuals must complete the process for requesting a tax transcript as listed above. The Tax Return Transcript must be requested on or after October 1, 2021. The IRS will provide a non-filing letter only if a return was not filed.

A Verification of Non-filing Letter can also be obtained by completing and faxing an IRS Form 4506-T. For Verification of Non-filing Letters, be sure to check box 7, and on line 9, enter the year or period requested (ex.: 12/31/2020).
